

States Armed Forces that are permanently stationed outside the United States. The review shall include an assessment of the following:

- (1) The alliance requirements that are to be found in agreements between the United States and other countries.
- (2) The national security interests that support permanently stationing elements of the United States Armed Forces outside the United States.
- (3) The stationing costs associated with the forward deployment of elements of the United States Armed Forces.
- (4) The alternatives available to forward deployment (such as material prepositioning, enhanced airlift and sealift, or joint training operations) to meet such alliance requirements or national security interests, with such alternatives identified and described in detail.

(E) The costs and force structure configurations associated with such alternatives to forward deployment.

(F) The financial contributions that allies of the United States make to common defense efforts (to promote democratization, economic stabilization, transparency arrangements, defense economic conversion, respect for the rule of law, and internationally recognized human rights).

(G) The contributions that allies of the United States make to meeting the stationing costs associated with the forward deployment of elements of the United States Armed Forces.

(H) The annual expenditures of the United States and its allies on national defense, and the relative percentages of each nation's gross domestic product constituted by those expenditures.

(2) The President shall submit to Congress a report on the review under paragraph (1). The report shall be submitted not later than March 1, 1997, in classified and unclassified form.

(e) REPORT DATE.—Section 1003(c) of Public Law 98-515 is amended by striking out "each year" and inserting "by March 1, 1998, and every other year thereafter".
